Why do we collect this information and what will we do with it?

Your data will be used to:

- deliver the services that you have booked
- safeguard your health, safety and well-being
- meet our legal and accreditation obligations
- understand our customers and improve our services
- promote LILA* and its services

We may send information to you about other services or news about LILA* that might interest you; this is only done when you have given us consent to do so.

We will only use photos, videos and testimonials from you when you have given us specific consent to do so.

Who might we share your information with?

We share information about you with:

- your Educational Tour Operator (ETO) when you have booked through another company
- your supervisor when you are a scholarship student
- other companies/people who are delivering services on our behalf e.g. airport transfers, accommodation providers, leisure activities
- external bodies where there is a legal need to do so
- our accrediting bodies where there is a requirement to do so
- the general public where the information is being used for promotional purposes

We do not sell your information at any time.

How long do we keep hold of your information?

We will not keep your identifiable information longer than needed. This might be to achieve its original purpose or to meet our legal obligations.

You have the right to ask that we delete the information we hold about you.

How can I access the information you hold about me?

You can request access to the information that we hold about you by writing to:

Victoria Bligh, Director of Operations: Victoria@lilalovetolearn.com

You have the right to see this information and to request changes where there are errors.

Where can I find out more about my rights?
